ENTERTAINMENTS.

Hyperion.

Sidney Grundy's "Sowing the Wind" will play a return engagement at the Hyperion on Thursday evening, March 7. It will be welcome news that this superlatively meritorious work will be again presented by the same versatile people seen here before, as shown by the following cast:

Mr. Brabazon, a widower, J. H. Gilmour
Mr. Watkin, a bachelor, Thomas Whiffen
Ned Allesley, Mr. Brabazon's adopted son, Frank Miller
Lord Petworth, S. E. Springer
Sir Richard Curzon, Guy Standing
Mr. Deakin, attorney-at-law, Frederick Strong
Glossop, a butler, Harry Phillips
Webb, a valet, Harold Howard
Rosamond, Mary Hampton
Hon. Mrs. Fretwell, Minnie Brown
Maud Fretwell, Carrie Keeler
Bridget, a housekeeper, Emily Dodd

Sale of seats now open.

Notwithstanding the many high class minstrel offerings that have visited this city in the past few years Messrs. Thatcher & Johnson promise to excel in points of elegance, worth and merit anything we have yet seen when they bring us their new minstrel company on next Saturday at the Hyperion. Sale of seats opens Friday.

Grand Opera House.

A large audience witnessed the opening performance of Frederic Bryton and company at the Grand Opera house last evening. The character of John Diamond affords an excellent opportunity for Mr. Bryton to display his talent, and it was fully appreciated by the audience present.

The drama centers in the life of "John Diamond," who is ruined in the eyes of his wife by one "Graham," who seeks to cause his downfall, as "Diamond" married the woman he formerly loved and still professes to love. After a separation of years all turns out well to the satisfaction of all. The play is a strong one and should draw a large house at this evening's performance. As "Graham," the plotter, Mr. Del Barre is commendable and so well did he portray his role that he provoked a storm of hisses when he appeared before the curtain. Mr. Mack as "Peabody," a friend of "Diamond's," was a great success and his acting calls for commendation and was warmly applauded. Anyone desirous of seeing a good play well enacted should see "Forgiveness" as presented by Mr. Bryton and company. Mr. Bryton is an actor of reputation and is already a great favorite with New Haven audiences. To-night is the last appearance of the company here this season.

At the Grand on Wednesday and Thursday evening Milton Nobles, assisted by Dolly Nobles, will present his successful play, "From Sire to Son." The play is his best work from a literary and constructive point of view. As the reformed gambler Mr. Nobles fills the idea to perfection. Don't forget on Wednesday.

Super ballets, marches and evolutions, magnificent transformation scenes, brilliant singing, bright comedy, funny pantomime, clever specialties and an elaborate series of the famous living pictures all help to make M. B. Leavitt's gorgeous spectacle, "Spider and Fly," the most attractive production of the year. It will be presented at the Grand on Friday and Saturday evenings. The text of the play has been entirely rewritten, and the feature is new. "Spider and Fly" minstrel Saturday.

Foli's Wonderland Theater.

There were large and delighted audiences on hand at the opening performances given by the splendid company playing at the Wonderland. Hughey Dougherty, who heads the great combination, received a most enthusiastic welcome when his well known figure appeared before the foot-lights. He is as funny as ever and delighted the big audience. Miss Ella Westmer made much fun also with her remarkable male character impersonations, and she has certainly lost none of the ability which made her so successful in New York when she enjoyed the phenomenal run of 500 nights. John and Harry Dillon are excellent parody singers, the version of the popular songs of the day being exceedingly humorous. The Electric quartet, the Burt sisters, Stinson and Merton, Matthews and Harris, Billy Williams, and the Rice brothers are all splendid artists, who do much to make the performance at the Wonderland exceptionally attractive.

DAUGHTERS OF REBECCA.

A Big Masquerade Ball Last Night. One of the largest masquerade societies of the season was given by Deborah lodge, No. 14, Daughters of Rebecca, I. O. O. F., in Harugari hall last evening. The costumes were very fancy and included many original ones. The grand march was led by Henry Knapp and the following floor committees: Moses Bratzfelder, William Hase, Carl Pines, Rudolph Henze, Ernst Ploeger, Louis Donner, William Schwenck.

The ladies in charge of the arrangements were as follows: Mrs. M. Taubert, chairman; Mrs. D. Tommers, Mrs. A. Chadborne, Mrs. M. Hein, Mrs. B. Beetz, Mrs. M. Herrmann, Mrs. M. Glue, Mrs. M. Bunce, Miss K. Nolte. Music was furnished by the Philharmonic orchestra.

Funeral of Mr. Chittenden.

Madison, March 4.—The funeral of the late John M. Chittenden, member of the board of prison directors, took place this afternoon from his late residence here. There were many present. The members of the state prison board and Warden Woodbridge attended. The services were conducted by the Rev. Dr. Brown of this place and the interment was in the West cemetery.

Died in Winsted.

Winsted, March 4.—Mrs. Charlotte Coe, the wife of Mr. L. B. Tuttle, died on Saturday night, aged seventy-seven years two months and ten days. Mrs. Tuttle was a native of Winsted. She was a sister of Mr. S. W. Coe and the late Luke Coe and was the wife of the late Mr. S. W. Coe. The date of the funeral will be announced on Tuesday. Mrs. Strobridge, another sister, is expected to arrive in Winsted to-day to attend the funeral.

Followed Advice and Was Cured.

In speaking of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, Mrs. James H. Beach, of Rosedale, N. Y., says: "About seven years ago I was a sufferer from kidney disease, so sick and helpless, I could not walk a step. My physician could do me no good, so I began to use Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, and from the very first dose I could see improvement, and it entirely cured me. My husband used it for dyspepsia with excellent result." Favorite Remedy dissolves the excess of uric acid in the blood, thus curing disease. Such ailments as rheumatism, dyspepsia, kidney, liver and urinary troubles, and the ill effects of women all arise from this cause, and are cured by Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy.

LOCAL NEWS JOTTINGS.

George D. Bone, Jr., of this city, the well known polo player, has been dangerously ill with blood poisoning at Salem, Mass., where his club has been playing, but is now improving. He injured his foot in a game, and blood poisoning set in.

The pallbearers at the funeral of Mrs. Charles Hopkins Clark in Hartford yesterday were Colonel Frank W. Cheney, Judge Nathaniel Shipman, Judge Edward B. Bennett, Austin C. Dunham, Thomas Hooker of New Haven and Howard Mansfield of New York. The interment was at Spring Grove cemetery.

Republican Was Elected.

Waterville, Me., March 4.—In a hotly contested election to-day Christian Knauftmann, rep., was re-elected mayor by a plurality of 296 over Charles A. Hill, dem.

LOVE LED HIM TO TRY SUICIDE.

A Young Man on Bishop Street Takes Laudanum.
Henry Covert, who lives with his father, Alexander H. Covert, at No. 19, Bishop Street, attempted suicide yesterday by taking laudanum. The dose was taken in a house on Edwards Street, near Orange Street, after which the young man went home and told his parents what he had done. Dr. Winchell was called and after two hours' work over the man he was brought around so that it is thought he will recover.
